SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

Defendant shall participate in the Location Monitoring Program and shall comply with the conditions of home detention which will be monitored by a location monitoring system as determined by the probation officer, for a period of 6 months. After the six months, your probation officer has the discretion to reinstall or remove the device during the remaining period of supervision. Defendant shall wear a location monitoring device(s) and follow the monitoring procedures specified by his probation officer. Defendant shall pay all costs of the program based upon his ability to pay as determined by the U.S. Probation Officer at the prevailing rate.

You shall participate in a program approved by the United States Probation Office for substance abuse, which will include drug testing to determine whether you have reverted to the use of drugs. You shall contribute to the cost of any treatment based on ability to pay and the availability of third-party payments.

Defendant shall participate in a program approved by the United States Probation Office for mental health treatment as well as for treatment and monitoring of sex offenders, to include polygraph testing if determined necessary by the treatment provider or the supervising probation officer.

Defendant shall have no unsupervised contact with children under the age of 18, and shall refrain from entering into any place where children normally congregate, without the written approval of the court.

Defendant shall submit his person, and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, or other electronic communications or data storage devices or media, and effects to search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any law enforcement or probation officer with reasonable suspicion concerning unlawful conduct or a violation of a condition of probation or supervised release, and by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions.
